

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Gaithersburg, MD

April 23, 2010

CONTACT: Laura Rowles, Director of Events & Marketing
lrowles@ggchamber.org, (301) 840-1400 x14

GGCC to celebrate its 7th Annual Wine Tasting and Charity Bake Sale

The Gaithersburg-Germantown Chamber of Commerce will celebrate its 7th Annual Wine Tasting on Thursday, May 20 at the Kentlands Mansion, 320 Kent Square Road, Gaithersburg.

The event is sponsored by The City of Gaithersburg and P.B. Dye Golf club; as well as GGCC Special Event Sponsors BB&T and Crown Trophy.

"The event was fantastic," said Hal Burstein, Burstein & Associates, with regards to the 2009 tasting.

Bryan Davis, Executive Chef at P.B Dye Golf Club, is busy preparing the menu that includes slowly braised and fire grilled riblettes with honey chipotle BBQ sauce paired with Cab Franc. There will be delicious food to complement a fine array of both red and white wines provided by P.B. Dye Golf Club.

"The GGCC wine tasting was a stellar event due to the wonderful food and wine pairings Chef Bryan provided. Each dish was very tasty and complimented so well by the wines. Thanks for such a lovely evening," said GGCC Member Mary Ann Britton with regards to the 2009 tasting.

As part of this event, the Hilton Washington DC/North Gaithersburg Hotel will host a charity bake sale to benefit "Give Kids the World" Foundation. Since 1986, Give Kids the World has served over 100,000 families from all 50 states and 70 countries. Give Kids the World provides memorable, magical, cost-free experiences to children with life-threatening illnesses and their families. Further information on the charity can be found at <http://www.gktw.org/>.

Tickets are on sale now; the cost is $25 for GGCC Members and $50 for Non-Members. For further details on the Chamber's event and or to register please visit the GGCC Events Calendar at www.ggchamber.org.