GGCC Conducts Ribbon Cutting Ceremony for United Bank

The Gaithersburg-Germantown Chamber of Commerce (GGCC) held a ribbon cutting ceremony for United Bank, located at 16268 Frederick Road, Gaithersburg, last week. The ceremony, on March 18th, was a part of their grand re-opening and in conjunction with the GGCC Business Networking After Five networking event.

Gaithersburg Branch Manager Gabriel Derosier welcomed Chamber members and guests stating "On March 17th, United Bank celebrated its 171st birthday."

Derosier continued stating "in today's economy, the strength of your banking company shouldn't be in question. At United, we don't just claim to be financially strong – we have the numbers to prove it."

The Gaithersburg United Bank has supported the GGCC since 1999. They are a local community bank specializing in small business relationships. For more information on United Bank visit www.unitedbankdcmetro.com.

For more information on the Gaithersburg-Germantown Chamber please visit the GGCC website at www.ggchamber.org.

United Bank's Steve Jones, Rockville Branch Manager; Gabriel Derosier, Gaithersburg Branch Manager; Scot Harlow, Regional Manager & Ken King Bethesda Branch Manager celebrate the Gaithersburg's Branch Grand Re-opening.
